MONEY, MORALITY, AND MADOFF

The Jewish Repertory Theatre is having a public panel forum to discuss the Fall production of IMAGINING MADOFF (10/18-11/13/11) as a vehicle to explore the controversial topics of money and morality. The panel discussion, free and open to all, will take place on Sunday, October 2nd at 11:00am at the Maxine and Seller Theatre, 2640 North Forest Rd., Getzville, NY. Complimentary coffee, pastries and bagels will be served.

Moderator:

Ronnie Podolefsky, an attorney specializing in civil rights, employment law, and mediation.

Panelists are:

Saul Elkin, JRT Artistic Director. Co-founder of the JRT, he has appeared in, or directed, many JRT productions and is the founder and artistic director of Shakespeare in Delaware Park. He is a former chair of the University of Buffalo's Theatre Department.

Robert Rutland, Star of Imagining Madoff. Robert Rutland was Education Director and Actor-in-Residence at Studio Arena Theatre. Locally, he has performed with Shakespeare in Delaware Park, Irish Classical Theatre and the Kavinoky Theatre.

Rabbi Perry Netter, Temple Beth Tzedek is an informed discussant about Jewish ethics. He is known for his innovative programs for deepening religious experiences and strengthening the culture of life-long learning.

David Desmon, CFP, Sr. V.P. of Merrill Lynch and Wealth Management Advisor, is a 40+ year veteran of the financial services industry and along with his wife, Janet, received the American Jewish Committee's Community Leadership Award to honor their dedication and commitment to philanthropy.
